Amendment Agreement Description

Project Sponsor: Skagit Fish Enhancement Group
Project Title: Pressentin Park Restoration Phase 2 and 3
Project Number: 15-1165 R
Amendment Number: 1

Agreement Description

The Pressentin Park Side Channel Restoration project will restore and enhance historic and existing side channel habitat in Pressentin Park, located in Marblemount, Washington. The project will re-configure a relict side channel so that it is activated by the current flow regime, providing an 2500-foot long flow-through channel that provides more than 2 acres of rearing habitat for juvenile Chinook, steelhead and other salmon species. Our analyses indicate that the restored channel may also provide spawning habitat for coho and chum. In Phase 1 of this project, Skagit Fisheries Enhancement Group (SFEG) worked with Skagit County Parks, the Upper Skagit Indian Tribe and Sauk-Suiattle Tribes, Equinox Research and Consulting and Herrera Environmental Consultants, Inc. to evaluate three alternatives for restoring side channel habitat. Phase 1 work also included an intensive cultural resources assessment along the relict side channel that is the target restoration area.

Amendment Special Conditions

Project Sponsor: Skagit Fish Enhancement Group
Project Number: 15-1165 R
Project Title: Pressentin Park Restoration Phase 2 and 3
Amendment Number: 1

Special Conditions

The sponsor will provide a copy of the 60% design deliverables to the SRFB review panel for its review and approval before proceeding to the final design phase of the project. Please allow 30 days for review and feedback.

Also, prior to advancing to the Phase 3 construction phase, the Skagit Watershed Council technical work group (TWG) must review and approve the Phase 2 final design deliverables.

Release of SRFB and/or PSAR funds for construction activities in Phase 3 is conditioned upon securing all necessary construction funds for Phase 3. This does not apply to Phase 3 administrative or engineering funds.

Currently, the 2015 Skagit Watershed Council Lead Entity Citizen's Committee final ranked list has a shortfall of $204,551. To fully fund all project requests, the Pressentin Phase 3 construction budget is reduced by $204,551, from its original request of $1,780,141 to $1,575,590. As authorized by the Skagit Watershed Council, any future SRFB or PSAR funds can be amended back into the grant.

Pressentin Park was original acquired with WWRP-Local Parks funds by Skagit County (PRISM #92-110). Another parcel, between the park and the Skagit River, known as "Sakshaug" was purchased by The Nature Conservancy (TNC) with a SRFB grant (PRISM #07-1783). The proposed restoration project needs to be compatible with the recreation long-term obligations per the WWRP - LP funding program.
